

TRAILS

SUPERSTITION WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 170 miles of “system” trails serving the Superstition Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Plow Saddle Trail 287: 0.4 miles in length. A short connecting trail in the north fork of Paradise Canyon. Poorly maintained. Elevation: 4,400 - 4,780 feet. Termini: Trail 109, and Trail 112.

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
